

Regeneron Pharmaceuticals

Campus Lab and Workplace Renovations

Tarrytown, New York

Master Planning

A first generation fit out of a 140,000 square foot life sciences research and development building – the largest construction project in Westchester when built.

First to Market

Scientific innovations resulting in life-saving treatments.

Workplace as Recruiter

Architecture and interior design featured in The Wall Street Journal as an environment for recruitment and retention.

